RELIGION IN DAILY LIFE. - Spurgeon says-We must come back to our point, which is not to urge all of you to give yourselves up to mission work, but to serve God more and more in connection with your daily calling. I have heard that a woman who has a mission makes a poor wife and a bad mother. This is very possible and at the same time very lamentable; but the mission I would urge is not of this sort. Dirty rooms, slatternly gowns, and children with unwashed faces are swift witnesses against the sincerity of those who keep other vineyards and neglect their own. I have no faith in that woman who talks of grace and glory abroad and uses no soap and water at home. Let the buttons be on the shirts, let the children's socks be mended, let the roast mutton be done to a turn, let the house be as neat as a new pin, and the home as happy as a home can be. Serve God, by doing common actions in a heavenly spirit, and then, if your daily calling only leaves you cracks and crevices of time, fill these up with holy service.

MORE ABOUT SNAKES.—In Pulaski county,

MORE ABOUT SNAKES .- In Pulaski county, a few days ago, a gentleman and lady were seated in the shade of a tree, engaged in conversation, when the lady, who had on a red dress, was badly frightened by discovering an enormous rattlesnake, snugly coiling himself in the folds of her skirt. She sprang to her feet.

Inotes of the purchaser, with satisfactory security, and the title to be retained until the purchase money be fully paid. Stamps and conveyances at the cost of the purchaser.

ALBERT STUART, the folds of her skirt. She sprang to her feet, and walked a few steps away, where, having somewhat recovered her self-possession, she awaited further demonstration from the snake, and was astonished to see him again approach her, and coil himself up at her feet; but whether this strange conduct was attributable to his partiality for red or because he was captivated by the lady's beauty, is not known. The gentleman finally killed the snake, which was found to have twelve rattles. This rather tough yarn is vouched for by an intelligent and veracious gentleman.—Lynchburg Republican.
